V.12a

IN my wanderings through the old book shops of the city of Chicago, I encountered, in Mr. Alexander Greene's shop, a chalk drawing of Oscar Wilde, by an unknown artist, which, Mr. Greene informed me, was purchased in London many years ago. So far as I know, this picture has never before been reproduced, and for that reason I am issuing this supplemental volume, uniform with the editions of my Catalogues of Wilde and Wildeiana heretofore published.
